Constipation

Demands prompt treatment. The results of neglect may be serious. Avoid all harsh and drastic purgatives, the tendency of which is to weaken the bowels. The best remedy is Ayer's Pills. Being purely vegetable, their action is prompt and their effect always beneficial. They are an admirable Liver and After-dinner pill, and everywhere endorsed by the profession.

"Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."—Dr. I. E. Fowler, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa.

"For several years Ayer's Pills have been used in my family. We find them an for constipation and indigestion, and are never without them in the house."—Moses Grenier, Lowell, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for liver troubles and indigestion, during many years, and have always found them prompt and efficient in their action."—N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"I suffered from constipation which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."—James Quinn, 90 Middle St., Hartford, Conn.

"Having been troubled with costiveness, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief. I am glad to say that they have served me better than any other medicine. I arrive at this conclusion only after a faithful trial of their merits."—Samuel F. Jones, Oak St., Boston, Mass.

THE A. O. U. W. CONVENTION.

The Utah Delegate Returns—The Reception, Etc.

William Fuller—beg pardon, Judge Fuller, has returned from his journey to Wyoming and Colorado. He feels highly pleased over his trip; but is glad, all the same, to get back home to Salt Lake. As a delegate to the Grand Lodge Convention of the A. O. U. W. he, with the other delegates received a royal welcome. At Cheyenne the majority of the best business men belong to the order; the attorney-general of the Territory acting on the committee on transportation. The freedom of the city was proffered by the mayor of Cheyenne to the A. O. U. W. Grand Lodge. A free carriage ride and grand banquet was also given them. The Grand Lodge of Colorado telegraphed an invitation to visit Denver; and to Denver they went. At the depot respective committees awaiting with vehicles to convey the members to the various hotels. On Saturday morning a procession of carriages, with grey teams and gold trimmed harness conveyed the visitors around the town of Denver, containing 100,000 inhabitants, winding up with a formal reception by the Governor of the State. On Saturday afternoon, upon the invitation of the officers of Colorado lodges, a visit was made to Pueblo, where there was a reunion of the lodges of northern and southern Colorado, a magnificent street parade took place, consisting of uniformed police; the militia; G. A. R.; I. O. O. F. encampment; K. of P.; Mayor and City Council; bands of music and hundreds of A. O. U. W.; it formed a procession four blocks long marching to the mesa above the town where speechifying and a banquet filled the hours until midnight. On the reception committee were the governor of the State, the mayor, Bessemer, and two ex-mayors of Pueblo (all members of the order), with many of the leading business men of the town. In visiting among the real estate men he found everybody pulling for Colorado and Denver as the hub. One thing very noticeable was that the men who had made money in that country spent it in building up their country; widely different from the some of the men who have made stakes in Utah have done. A few talk of the Salt Lake country, but a frequently expressed sentiment was that property was high in Salt Lake City. The experience in real estate business in Denver is the same as here, viz: nothing doing in the hot dry months, activity existing mostly in bad weather.

A Reminder from the Watermaster.

Watermaster Wilcken wants the people living near the heads of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Ward ditches to remember that those living below them also need water, and they requested not to turn the water into their lots, or otherwise waste it. There is enough for culinary purposes only, and by conforming to the watermaster's request, they will save themselves from trouble.

For Stealing Horses.

The man Marshal, who was arrested on Tuesday night for stealing three horses belonging to Mr. Chadwick, of Slaterville, was taken to Ogden last night by Sheriff Belnap. Marshal will be remembered as the man who was shot in this city about two years ago by a man named Carter. He is a hard case.

Of all Things in the World

A tonic to what nervous people require. To impart strength into the nervous organism is to insure its tranquility, provided causes of unhealthful excitement are avoided. A medical tonic that like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—commands the unqualified sanction of the healing profession, and which institutes a general reform in a bilious, dyspeptic and debilitated condition of the system, is surely entitled to a careful trial by intelligent people, capable of forming a true estimate of a medicine, from emphatic and often recorded professional evidence in its behalf. Not only are the nerves and stomach invigorated by the Bitters, but the system is also endowed with unwonted power of resistance to influences in air, water or daily avocation subversive of health. Prominently dangerous among the first named is fever is malarial, against which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters afford a complete safeguard. Rheumatism and kidney troubles are also prevented and overcome by it.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jessie Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co's. Drug Store.

The Rowing Club.

This organization, especially since the advent of the eastern oarsmen, has commenced to assume airs of importance. The six-oared barge recently ordered east is expected to arrive in a few days. Jake Greerwald has tendered the club his single shell recently purchased from Gastrich, with the understanding that he is to name the man who is to occupy it, and endeavor to make a record. It is thought that Charley Rookedge will be selected. Jo. Oberndorfer will man the shell purchased by Jake Moritz, while Ike Woolf, who purchased a single shell and a double scull, has, so far, not intimated what he will do with his. There is great interest being manifested in the movements of the club, and everything points to the belief that the Salt Lake Rowing Club will be one of the fixed attractions for the future.
